'PSYCHO' ALONE.

CONTENTS/EDITOR

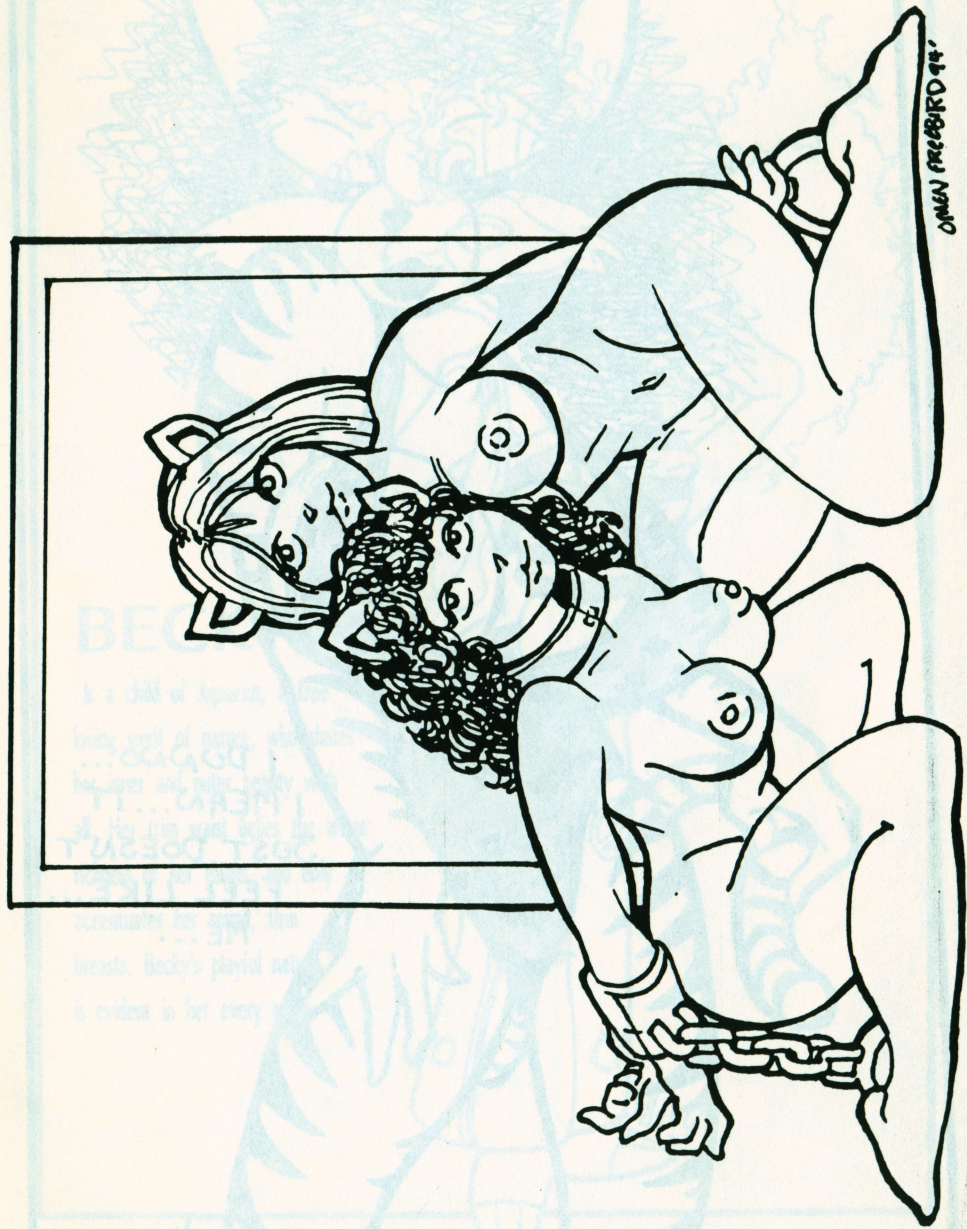

Whoa! Is it already time for another issue? Where do the months go? Well, we have gathered more filthy furies for your enjoyment, including a little piece we discovered in a back issue of one of the very first furry rags, a little zine that captured the debut pictorial of a soon to be famous star of afternoon animation. See if you can guess where she currently works. Just don't tell Bob, cause I'm sure she didn't list this on her resume, hmm?

And while we're talking rodents, let us pause a moment to reflect on the plight of the streaked tenrec, the world's fastest breeding mammal, on the endangered species list because a female tenrec would rather fuck anything other than a male tenrec. As the responsible world citizens you know we are, we have offered employment to a tenrec, Missy by name, in hopes of bettering the lot of tenrecs worldwide, not just because she has huge tits and insatiable lusts. Really.

BECKY

Is a child of Aquarius, a free loving spirit of nature, who shares her inner and outer beauty with all. Her trim waist belies the warm richness of her thighs, and only accentuates her round, firm breasts. Becky's playful nature is evident in her every move.

"I don't know, I don't think I'll ever really grow up. I mean," she says with a giggle, "Could you see me as your boss?"

Becky, we'd take your orders anytime!

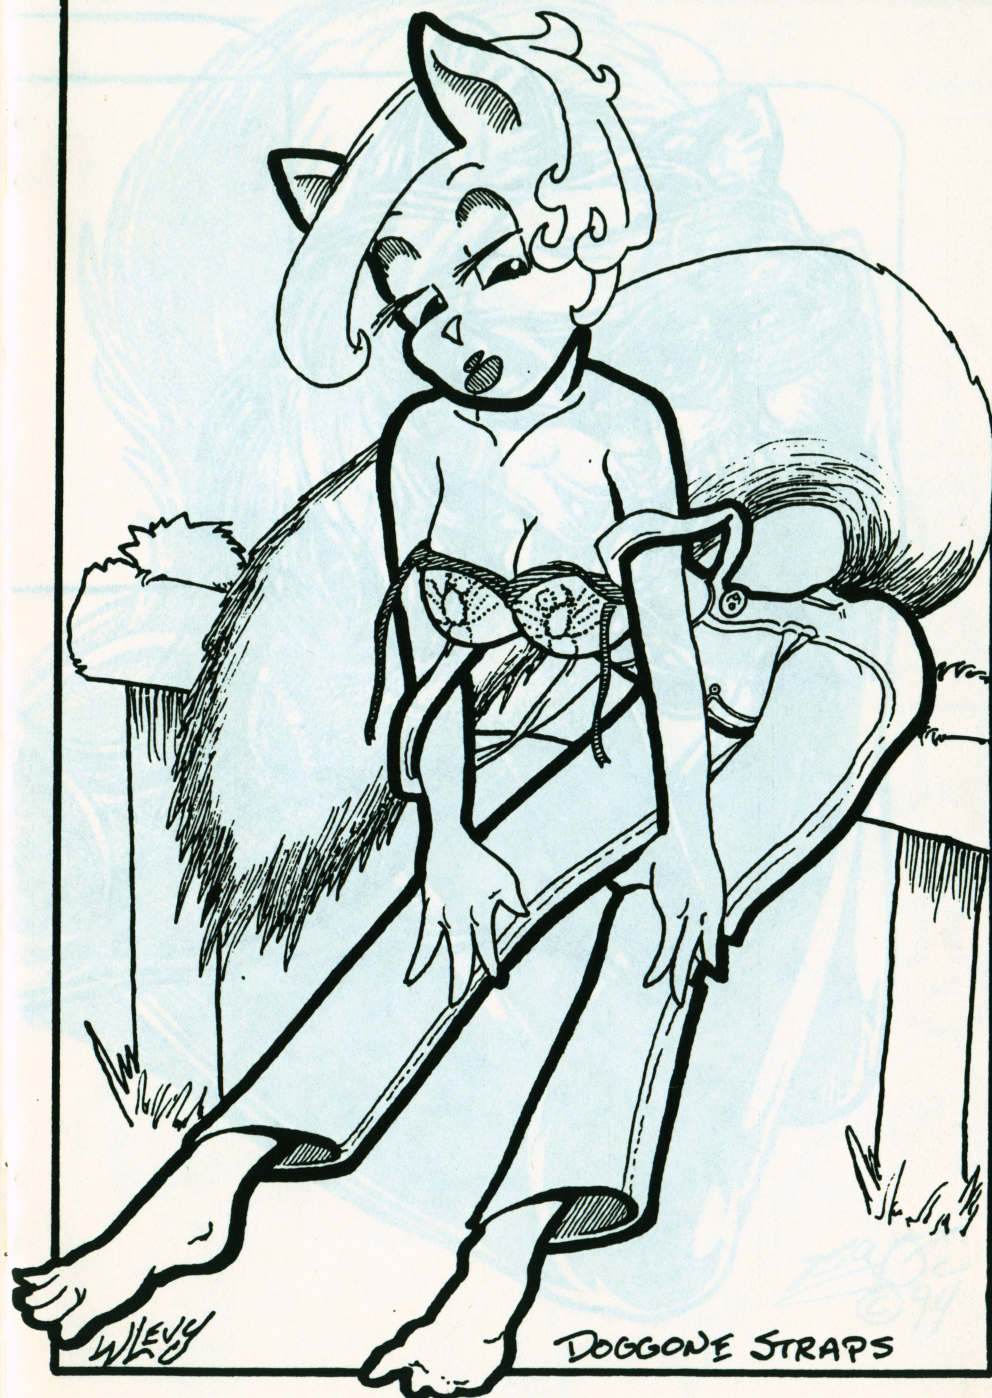

Becky has big plans for the future. "I want to settle down on an island somewhere warm," she smiles, "And just spend my time sunbathing and looking for a sensitive guy to share my space."
